MAKE YOUR LIFE A WORK OF ART

Life to some people often seems blur and they loose their focus in the chaotic busyness. People at times feel trapped by a stream of irksome tasks of life and work, that never seem to end. Thus, people must attempt to enhance the quality of their life with art. Art is like a food for the soul and making/ performing art is mediation in action. It nourishes one's desire for clarity and harmony in life and its aspects. And to achieve this, you need to find answers to the problems, which you face. This would lead to the discovery of the other side of complexity and the attainment of simplicity.

To make your life a work of art, you shall work like an artist. Every artist begins his work with a clear intention and purpose and acts using his creativity. He has few ideas about the end product he wants to create, whether it is a painting or a song. Similarly, you should try to be clear with what you are working for, else you would end up taking re-takes. Focused action and creative expression are one of the keys, to make life a work of art. With imagination, focus, observation, and creativity, one can transform the ordinary into the artful. And once you have dug through the messes, you will realise that life is truly beautiful.
