Our Approach Women Centric

There is no force more powerful than a woman determined to rise.

For many women in India, a job in apparel or garment sector could be the first step towards economic independence. Promoting women empowerment, K.S. Overseas is committed to provide equitable employment opportunities to female workers. In fact, we have a higher percentage of women in the workforce than the industry average. We ensure that our company policies and communications are defined to benefit the female workforce throughout the value chain. For example, we are designing programs to impart technical and soft skills to our female employees to help them grow to their full potential. Additionally, we also try to create awareness among our employees on their health and well-being. We also have a dedicated team to address the concerns and grievances of our female employees. We firmly believe that through our small initiatives, we could help in changing societal attitudes and strengthen females financially.
